

THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS
AND THE
CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The following pages provide an overview of the gospel readings for the Sundays and solemnities of the liturgical year, divided into Lectionary cycles A, B, and C. Each gospel pericope is summarized then cross-referenced to relevant paragraphs in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

These charts are provided to serve both liturgists and catechists. They may aid homily preparation, music selection, and seasonal planning. They may assist religious educators or an RCIA team who are striving to develop catechesis "accommodated to the liturgical year" (RCIA 75.1 and 81). At a glance, one can appreciate the cursus of readings for each of the three Lectionary cycles.

It is not the intention of this author to suggest that the Catechism serve as the sole source for catechesis nor that the Catechism be used as a textbook that replaces effective adult methodology. What these charts do reveal is that the Church's magisterial teaching and her rich Tradition are firmly rooted in the revealed Word of God and that "liturgy is the privileged place for catechizing the People of God" (CCC 1074 and National Directory for Catechesis, 33).
